School Mission and Goals

Yavapai County High School (YCHS) is a program of the Yavapai Accommodation Scholl District #99 administered by Yavapai County Superintendent providing alternative education & social skills training in a safe, supportive environment to students in grades 9 – 12. YCHS, as an alternative high school, serves students with behavioral issues, dropout students wishing to return to high school, or those in poor academic standing and who find themselves unsuccessful in a traditional educational setting.
